

WHY SHOULD YOU COMPOST?

Food, leaves and grass take up more space in landfills than any other materials combined

Compost can be used as fertilizer on your garden
Compost improves the condition of soils

Reduce greenhouse gases
Reuse organic materials

Save money on chemical fertilizers
Recycle natural nutrients

Produce rich humus for plants

Compost improves soils with chemicals, helps conserve water and provides nutrients to growing plants